PC Mag Unofficial Guides Covers receipts and expenditures of appropriations and other funds. PC Mag Unofficial Guides This book examines the historical development of Korean food TV and its articulation of Koreanness in the era of globalization. Jaehyeon

Jeong defines the evolution of Korean food TV as an outcome of the conjuncture between the television industry's structural changes, the shift in food's landscape and cultural legitimacy, and various sociocultural, political, and economic transformations. In addition, Jeong reveals how the state appropriates the banality of food to raise South Korea's global image and how it utilizes domestic television to disseminate statist discourse of the nation. Understanding discourses of national cuisine as reflective of and formative of discourses of the nation, he argues that the growth of discourses of national cuisine is symptomatic of the struggle for nationness in a globalized world.
