“Greg LeMond was Lance Armstrong before Lance Armstrong . . . the story of a true hero . . . This is a must read if you believe in miracles.”—John Feinstein, New York Times–bestselling author In July 1986, Greg LeMond stunned the sporting world by becoming the first American to win the Tour de France, the world's pre-eminent bicycle race, defeating French cycling legend Bernard Hinault. Nine months later, LeMond lay in a hospital bed, his life in peril after a hunting accident, his career as a bicycle racer seemingly over. And yet, barely two years after this crisis, LeMond mounted a comeback almost without parallel in professional sports. In summer 1989, he again won the Tour—arguably the world’s most grueling athletic contest—by the almost impossibly narrow margin of 8 seconds over another French legend, Laurent Fignon. It remains the closest Tour de France in history. “[A] blend of chaos, kindness and cruelty typifies the scenes that journalist de Visé brings to life in this sympathetic-verging-on-reverential retelling of LeMond’s trailblazing career (first American to enter the tour, first to win it) . . . As an author in quest of his protagonist’s motivation, [de Visé] subjects it to extreme torque.”—The Washington Post “A great book . . . Well written and thoroughly researched . . . Engrossing and hard to put down. If you’re a Greg LeMond fan, The Comeback is a must read because it’s a detailed accounting of his career and—more importantly—his life and person off the bike. It’s also an important reminder that American cycling did not begin and end with Lance Armstrong.”—PEZ de guitare Fuzz et de Farfisa -, les Fleshtones y ont associé une énergie résolument punk puisant aux sources du rhythm & blues et du rock and roll. L'histoire des Fleshtones est l'illustration parfaite du dévouement total à la cause, accumulant galères, actes manqués, contrats ratés et chambres d'hôtel miteuses, mais délivrant année après année performances dévastatrices et albums incandescents. Joe Bonomo, dont le premier contact avec le groupe eut lieu au mythique 9:30 Club de Washington, D.C. en 1983, dresse ici le portrait d'une formation jusqu'au-boutiste, documentant une trentaine d'années de sueur et de dévotion au Garage. Joe Bonomo a écrit un livre très juste, qui ne parle pas seulement d'un groupe ou du temps qui passe, mais surtout d'une rare propension à l'endurance. – Nick Tosches

 The Teacher's Resource File supplements the core work covered in the Students'Book with extension and support work, thus giving the opportunity for further differentiation. Self-access answers to worksheet activities are provided in Ripponses sheets. The Vocabulaire 1 sheet provides, for all students, a reference for the key language of the Phrases-clis boxes on the spreads, presenting it in the context of whole sentences, with English translations. The Vocabulaire 2 sheet in the form of single vocabulary items gives more able students access to an extended range of language, again with an English translation. The File contains visuals (Presentation sheets) which can be printed onto OHP acetates. These are particularly useful for presenting and practising new items of vocabulary. Four separate Assessment tests are provided at intervals throughout the course, each one divided into the four National Curriculum Attainment Targets - Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing. A suggested allocation of marks for each test is given on the assessment sheet. Teacher's notes, tape transcripts and mark schemes are found in the Teacher's Book.
