The Ideas Behind the Chess Openings Pergamon

Why is this repertoire called simple? For the simple reason that the variations are straightforward, easy to remember and require little or no maintenance.

International Master Christof Sielecki has created a reliable set of lines for chess players of almost all levels. The major objective is to dominate Black in the opening, by simple means. You don't need to sacrifice anything or memorize long tactical lines. Unless Black plays something stupid, when tactics are the simplest punishment. Sielecki developed this repertoire working with students who were looking for something that was easy to understand and to learn. Most of the lines he selected are occasionally played by grandmasters, but on the whole they lie outside the mainstream of opening theory. That means that there is hardly any need to monitor theoretical developments. Sielecki always clearly explains the plans and counterplans and keeps you focussed on what the position requires. Ambitious players rated 1500 or higher will get great value out of studying this extremely accessible book.

If you want a reliable repertoire for White with 1.f4 then try the Bird Stonewall Playbook. This plan prepares you for the lines you are most likely to face from Black. Your idea is to play the Bird's Opening 1.f4 as White. The Stonewall pawn structure is f4, e3, d4, with Nf3. This Playbook tells you what to play. The 200 key positions are based on what Black plays most often. Five moves for White are added below the diagrams. That's about 1000 moves of opening preparation. Tim Sawyer has developed opening repertoires for 40 years. Do you want an easy way to start your chess games? Let him be your guide. Databases have millions of games with too many options that are too hard to remember. This book narrows your choices. It answers the question of what do I play when I get here? I offer you help. Play this. You are given a complete consistent repertoire. This shows you what to play in your games, not what others played. Most players think it takes too long to learn an opening. This is a quick study. Think how nice it is to be familiar with your defenses against 1...d5, 1...Nf6, 1...c5, and 1...e5. Imagine being comfortable with your piece development. It's your move as White in every diagram. Start your game well. Follow the suggested continuations. Be prepared!

1.f4 is the Bird opening. Henry Bird played it. He wanted to leave the mainstream and create new original positions. He liked a setup with b3 and Bb2. The Polar Bear System (PBS) played with the same intention. To leave the trodden theory paths and enter new undiscovered terrain. The system starts with a fianchetto of the King's Bishop after 1.f4, d5. PBS players want to enter exciting and original positions where it 's hard for Black to play for a flat equality. The book is for club players, but also professionals can get inspiration. GM Henrik Danielsen

This series provides an ideal platform to study chess openings. By continually challenging the reader to answer probing questions throughout the book, the Move by Move format greatly encourages the learning and practising of vital skills just as much as the traditional assimilation of opening knowledge. Carefully selected questions and answers are designed to keep you actively involved and allow you to monitor your progress as you learn. This is an excellent way to study any chess opening and at the same time improve your general chess skills and knowledge. The Nimzo-Larsen Attack is an ideal opening choice for players keen to avoid mainline theory but still wanting to set their opponents problems from the outset. In the Nimzo-Larsen, White begins 1 b3 and then develops in hypermodern fashion - planning to undermine any central structures Black dares to erect. A key attraction of the Nimzo-Larsen is that White can steer the game into either sharp play or elaborate strategic battles. In this book, International Master Cyrus Lakdawala invites you to join him in examining the many different variations of the Nimzo-Larsen. Lakdawala studies the typical plans and tactics for both sides, offers repertoire options for White, provides answers to all the key questions and tells you everything you need to know about playing the Nimzo-Larsen Attack. Essential guidance and training in the Nimzo-Larsen Attack Presents a repertoire for White with 1 b3 Utilizes an ideal approach to chess study Beating Minor Openings offers a world-class repertoire for Black against every sensible first move apart from 1.d4 and 1.e4. GM Victor Mikhalevski advocates an ambitious approach for Black, with the aim of occupying the centre and fighting for an advantage, rather than mere equality, wherever possible. The most critical moves covered are 1.c4 and 1.Nf3. Against the latter, Mikhalevski supplies a range of replies to allow for transpositions to most queen's pawn openings. In a review of Mikhalevski's previous book for Quality Chess, IM John Cox commented: "Given the goal the book has set itself, I don't believe the job could have been done better."

* The perfect survival guide to the chess openings * All openings covered * Detailed verbal explanations of plans for both sides * Up-to-date and featuring many tips and recommendations * Insights into the 'character' of each opening * Written by one of the world's foremost opening experts The first moves of a chess game define the nature of the whole struggle, as both players stake their claim to the critical squares and start to develop their plans. It is essential to play purposefully and to avoid falling into traps or reaching a position that you don't understand. This is not a book that provides masses of variations to memorize. Paul van der Sterren instead offers a wealth of ideas and explanation, together with the basic variations of each and every opening. This knowledge will equip players to succeed in the opening up to good club level, and provide a superb grounding in opening play on which to build a more sophisticated repertoire. The strategies he explains will, unlike ever-changing chess opening theory, remain valid as long as chess is played, and so the time spent studying this book will be rewarded many times over. Grandmaster Paul van der Sterren has won the Dutch Championship on two occasions, and in 1993 reached the Candidates stage of the World Chess Championship. He is an internationally renowned chess writer and editor: he was one of the founding editors of New in Chess, for whose Yearbooks he has contributed more than 150 opening surveys.
