A Place Called

Here is one unique book.

I’ve only ever read The Book of Tomorrow (read review), apart from this one, by Ahern and I think the author specializes in writing about and exploring in depth, the littlest things possible!

That’s what makes the plots and stories stand out:

Something that we haven’t read about quite a lot.

Cecelia Ahern really created a magical place out of missing objects. The two storylines were interesting to read but the conclusion to both of their endings left me feeling a bit empty. From all the hype, I feel like there should have been a bit more.
