These knitted and crocheted fashion accessories and decorative accents for the home vary in their required levels of skill, but all can be completed quickly and require only one skein of yarn. The stitch patterns and clear instructions make it easy for even procrastinators and the less-than-diligent to create a ruffled cravat, a drawstring bag, a tank top, cozy scarves, arm and leg warmers, lace wristlets, fingerless gloves, a mohair pillow, and even a sweater for a baby. Several projects do not require any new yarn at all—instead projects such as the Felted Striped Tote or the Labyrinth Circle Rug are designed using up a skein's worth of leftovers from other projects. A guide to terms and techniques, a resource directory, and a bibliography are also included.

All Lives Matter is a compilation of various lifestyle situations expressed via poetry. Certain poems are Marvina Sims' personal testimonies. Marvina's motivation comes from speaking directly with people and from worldwide occurrences. Be it diseases, substances, or divine intervention, everything in the world serves a purpose. Entities have either helped people, created barriers, or both. Accomplishments and devastations on one side of the world influence lives on the opposite end of the globe. The most disturbing is the demise of human lives. Although death is a requirement for everybody and for anything living, a killer, human or otherwise, is essential to make death happen. The reason All Lives Matter exists is because humans, as well as various organisms, are important to making an impact on one another. As a result, humans are more equal than not, proving that there is not one being living that is above any other.
