speedy consolidation of the Chancery Orders was not realized. The Consolidated General Orders, of which the following Work is an edition, were published at the commencement of the year 1860. The work of consolidation was intrusted; by Lord Chancellor Chelmsford, to two members of the Chancery bar, Messrs. Josiah Smith and H. Cadman Jones, who were instructed by him to consolidate the Orders in Sanders's collection, and the subsequent Orders, omitting those which were expressly or virtually abrogated and retaining the remainder, with no further alteration (except where the style was very antiquated) than should be deemed necessary for the purpose of consolidating the same and of adapting them to the present practice, so as to form a harmonious and well-arranged collection, and for the purpose of determining the most expedient practice where there is a conflict of authority on the words of an Order (a). The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts.
