Author Chamia LaRae Chambers is a self-professed, hopeful romantic and mush face. Her optimistic outlook on life and love has inspired her to counsel many who hope to someday experience true, selfless, and unconditional love. In Dear Love, she shares a collection of letters penned to an unnamed lover, affectionately called Love. Chambers addresses a host of situations where love plays a central role: loving someone so deeply, but not being able to find the words to express the emotion; experiencing soul-enrapturing passion; and enduring hurt but still intent on finding love. Each of the letters was inspired by the spirit of another person, a song, and raw emotions. Some are created from actual occurrences, and some are based on dreams and hopesbut they all center on real emotion. Provocative and sexy, romantic and emotional, Dear Love shares encounters with Loveand offers an opportunity to reflect on ones connections with their own love.

My Dearest Love, Love Letters From Him To Her is the first edition of the My Dearest Love series of books. This edition is a collection of love letters that I collected from men across America. The letters are written to mothers, wives, daughters, and girlfriends. This book is a letter, that I write to you on each chapter page telling you where I collected the letters for that particular chapter. This book will show you the many faces of love. Like a farmer from Iowa who's been in, a more than 60-year love affair with his wife. Or a young LA. gang member, who is experiencing real love for the first time and struggles with that ancient art of writing a love letter. One man wrote a beautiful letter and ended it with, "I love you your soon to be ex-husband." A man wrote a letter that was a marriage proposal, and I got the response. This book will grab you from the very first letter. I wrote a symbolic letter to my mother who passed away when I was 12 years old to introduce my wife and my first born who is her namesake. All of the men were proud to donate their letters for this book. One man wrote two of the same letters, one for the book, the other to put on his wife's grave. She was killed by a drunk driver just before he wrote it. This book is real raw emotions. Some of the letters will bring joy to your heart, other will bring a tear to your eye. (CAUTION) Ordering this book may inspire the person in your life to write you love letters. Future editions planned for the My Dearest Love series will be love letters from Her to Him, From LGBTQ Him to Him, from LGBTQ Her to Her, and My Dearest Love, Grandparents Edition. If you would like to submit a love letter and become a part of this love community you will find the information on the last page of the first edition My Dearest Love, Love Letters From Him To Her book.

The urban theatre which emerged under Anglo-European and local influences in colonial metropolises such as Calcutta and Bombay around the mid-nineteenth century marked the beginning of the 'modern period' in Indian theatre, distinct from classical, postclassical, and more proximate precolonial traditions. A Poetics of Modernity offers a unique selection of original, theoretically significant writings on theatre by playwrights, directors, actors, designers, activists, and policy-makers, to explore the full range of discursive positions that make these urban practitioners 'modern'. The source-texts represent nine languages, including English, and about one-third of them have been translated into English for the first time; the volume thus retrieves a multilingual archive that so far had remained scattered in print and manuscript sources around the country. A comprehensive introduction by Dharwadker argues for historically precise definitions of theatrical modernity, outlines some of its constitutive features, and connects it to the foundational theoretical principles of urban theatre practice in modern India.
