Or does it have something to do with why her evil cousin, Cassandra, is still lurking around town? Adie is determined to open her bakery on schedule, but if she takes the offer, will she find her shop filled with diligent workers or a handful of misfits? Either way, she can't refuse the bargain. Adie thinks she has just enough time to whip her new employees into shape, until a summer storm rolls over the city. It puts a kink in her plans when Kellen is suddenly charged with an excess of energy and Adie has to drop everything for him. With mishaps striking left and right, can she help Kellen, reach
