Here we go... the markets are on the point of going down! What to do in cases like these? Is it time to invest, sell everything or wait? The market downturns are always annoying, they come when you least expect it and they see mal most obvious and unavoidable, with the benefit of hindsight. But the truth is that we all wish we had sold everything on the eve of a drop in prices to buy back later at lower prices. "Highlighting by the author" In this book you will learn a proven method which comes from years of study of the most successful traders, to whom they have put their training in the stock markets at my disposal, and especially how to deal with both the best times to invest and the worst. In this book nothing is left to chance and the main causes of failure in this business are also analyzed, and what to do when the markets go down and how to recognize a trend reversal from a correction. Like any business, also the choices made in managing your own and investing are dictated by our ideas and are therefore subject to the risk that those ideas are fallacious. The assumptions of economics is that man is a perfectly rational being who is able to accurately assess each situation and then calculate which action in that context ensures maximum profit with the lower risk. In actual fact, however, when it comes to Investing, there is often asymmetric information, i.e. no information is available that is necessary for a truly considered choice. In this case, investment choices can be dictated by infatuation rather than a correct idea based on all the relevant information. In this book you will discover methods to avoid the most common mistakes.  Hundreds of thousands of Internet marketers are fully focused on getting passive income. It is by far the most tempting form of income since it lets you earn money on a regular basis even if you are not active with work. Because of the hype that this concept generates, many people come up with their own dream interpretations of it and unfortunately some are missing the mark. It is better to take a closer look at it as well as the things you should expect if you decide to pursue that goal. It is highly unlikely to achieve this passive income status overnight. Think of it like a rocket where you need to build a bunch of energy to launch it. But once it is in the air, you only have to do a fraction of the effort to keep things going. Creating an actual pathway is actually the time-consuming bit. If it was really a simple thing to do, everyone would be getting involved rather than sticking with tedious ways in earning money. Unfortunately, it is not that simple and you can't just create wealth out of thin air. Your only other alternative involves buying a possible passive income channel.
